

John Voorhees Claims Bride in Orlando, Florida

In a double ring ceremony May 4, at the St. Charles Catholic Church in Orlando, Fla., Miss Darla Jayne Albrecht became the bride of Sergeant John Lloyd Voorhees, son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Voorhees, 1103 Acacla Ave., Torrance.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon C Albrecht of Maryland, formerly of Orlando.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father.

Serving as her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Debra Albrecht.

Best man duties were performed by A. I. C. George Kennedy and A. I. C. Robert Yelverton was the usher.

Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. John N. Voorhees, parents of the bridegroom, who had flown to Orlando for the ceremony.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Women's Club in Orlando. Miss Jill Albrecht, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon touring the Southern States and Southern California.

On their arrival in Torrance, they were honored at a champagne reception given by the bridegroom's parents, to introduce their new daughter-in-law to South Bay friends. Clusters of white wedding bells, lilies-of-the-valley and white orange blossoms decorated the refreshment table.

Warm New Home for Kimbles

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kimble, who had made their home at 4749 Darien in Torrance for the past 10 years and are now established in their new home at 30722 S. Ganado Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula, were honored at a surprise housewarming last Saturday evening.

Returning from dinner with friends, the Kimbles found a group of friends assembled for a party. They had brought food for the buffet supper held in late evening, following dancing and the opening of gifts for the new home.

In the party were Messrs. and Mrs. William Crooker and Robert Reid, Miraleste; Wayne Norman, J. A. Eisenbrandt, and Phil Patton, Torrance; E. W. Templin, R. H. Reed, Fullerton; Paul Buhler, Santa Ana; Russell Love, Westchester.

Also, Miss Beverly Crooker of Miraleste and Steve Nuccio, Arcadia.

Entertains Two Clubs

Mrs. Alma Smith entertained two bridge clubs, one Thursday evening and the other on Friday evening at her home, 1614 Amapola Ave. For both parties, the hostess used a green and gold color theme.

The Thursday evening club enjoyed a dessert followed by the bridge games. High score was held by Mrs. R. S. Sleeth and second by Mrs. Dean Sears.

Others attending were Mmes. Robert Wellen of Yucaipa, D. A. Murphy, Wilmot Wickersham, J. B. Scott, and Grover Whyte.

Mrs. Sleeth will be the club's next hostess.

Parish Sets Carnival For Sunday

Due to the tragic events of last weekend, the annual St. Philomena Parish Carnival was postponed until Sunday, June 16. The site of the carnival is the church grounds at 21900 S. Main St., in the new city of Carson. The hours of the carnival will be from 1 p.m. until 9:30 p.m.

A fried chicken dinner will be held from 1 p.m. until 7 p.m. The climax of the carnival will be the awarding of the grand prize, a 1968 Chevy II Nova, and a second prize, a portable color television.

Everyone in the area is invited to attend the carnival and enjoy the many attractions including rides and booths.

Dr. Doolittle theme will be used throughout the decorations. No reservations are necessary to attend the carnival or dinner.
